

The Obama Administration Announces 2011 Promise Neighborhoods Grant Winners
 “20 Communities Secure Funding to Plan, Implement Cradle-to-Career Education Model”

Congratulations to the Detroit Promise Neighborhoods 2011 Planning Grant Recipient: Detroit Clark Park/Osborn Promise Neighborhoods. Black Family Development is the lead agency for Detroit’s Promise Neighborhoods.

The five Promise Neighborhoods implementation grantees are:
Applicant Name	Score
Berea College (Clay, Jackson, and Owsley Counties, Ky.)	98.33
California State University – East Bay (Hayward, Calif.)	93.33
Northside Achievement Zone (Minneapolis, Minn.)	98.67
United Way of San Antonio & Bexar County, Inc. (San Antonio, Texas)	93.67
Westminster Foundation (Buffalo, N.Y.)	100.67
The 15 Promise Neighborhoods planning grantees are
Black Family Development (Detroit, Mich.)	101
CAMBA (New York)	100
Campo Band of Mission Indians (Campo, Calif.)	89.33
Catholic Charities of Albany (Hudson, N.Y.)	98.33
Children Youth and Family Services (Charlottesville, Va.)	100.33
Community Action Project of Tulsa (Tulsa, Okla.)	101.67
Elmezzi Foundation (New York)	101.33
Martha O’Bryan Center (Nashville, Tenn.)	99.67
Mercer University (Macon, Ga.)	102
Meriden Children’s First (Meriden, Conn.)	99.67
Mission Economic Development Agency (San Francisco)	103
Ohio University (Glouster, Ohio)	99.67
Reading and Beyond (Fresno, Calif.)	103
SGA Youth and Family Services (Chicago)	100
South Bay Community Services (Chula Vista, Calif.)	101